

Name of Narrator: Julie Hooker
Name of Interviewer: Sue Purchase

Date of Interview: May 6, 2017
Place: Minneapolis, Minnesota
Open Book

Designator/Title: History Harvest

Subjects Discussed: Copy of The Statesmen artifact for the History Harvest; Oxford House; experience living in Oxford House; opening a new branch of Oxford House; misquotes in The Statesmen newspaper article about Julie and Oxford House; media portrayal of addiction; lack of support for substance abuse in Oregon; stigma; punitive treatment; harm reduction philosophies of love and respect; punitive treatment in Minnesota; creating her own organization using harm reduction philosophy; standards for women struggling with addiction; prostitution; methods of survival; finding a harm reduction community; growing marijuana; returning to school for a master's degree; Resurrection Recovery and use of harm reduction techniques

Length of Interview: 13 minutes
Length of Transcript: 4 pages

Request to Review Transcript: No